

I. Terms and conditions of use of the Gift Voucher

1. The Issuer accepts for redemption at catering outlets only original and undamaged gift vouchers with a legible number and signature of the issuer.
2. The gift voucher is issued for a specific value paid for by the purchaser and can be redeemed on a single visit within the validity period indicated on the voucher.
3. After the expiry date of the voucher, the holder may contact us to extend the period of use by an additional 30 calendar days only in the amount of 50% of the nominal value of the voucher. The remaining accumulated funds expire and are not refundable.
4. Funds on a gift voucher that are not used within the period and/or extended in accordance with the rules set out in points I.2. and I.3. expire and are not eligible for refund.
5. The voucher may be redeemed in part at one location, then at another and another, but on the same day.
6. When redeeming the voucher, the User is not entitled to receive change if the value of the Service provided is lower than the nominal value of the voucher.
7. The funds from the voucher cannot be used to purchase commercial goods offered by the Młyńska 12 facility.
8. The User is obliged to pay the difference in price in cash, by payment card, or other means of payment when the value of the Service provided is higher than the current nominal value of the voucher.
9. The Issuer has the right to refuse to redeem the voucher in the following cases, among others: expiry of the voucher's validity period, damage to the voucher for reasons not attributable to the Issuer to such an extent that it is impossible to read the data, lack of seats in catering outlets in the absence of confirmation of an advance reservation, during special events and occasions organized by Młyńska 12.

II. Final provisions

1. The voucher cannot be exchanged for cash (including cash) and is non-refundable.
2. The issuance of the voucher constitutes a sale subject to value added tax (VAT) within the meaning of applicable tax law. At the time of purchase of the voucher, the user receives a fiscal receipt or VAT invoice from the Issuer.
3. Thus, the person using the Voucher does not receive a receipt for its use, but may, during the service, receive verbal information upon request as to how much is still available for use in order to select products up to the amount paid for the Voucher.
4. A voucher within the meaning of applicable law is not a payment instrument, including a payment card. A voucher is a form of gift certificate.
5. Any matters not covered by these Terms and Conditions shall be governed by the provisions on bearer identification cards.
6. The content of these Terms and Conditions is available on the website at <http://restauracjathetime.pl>
7. The Issuer reserves the right to amend the Terms and Conditions. Any amendments shall become effective
7 days after their introduction by the Issuer and after the amended Terms and Conditions have been made available on the website www.mlynska12.pl.
